HAD NARROW ESCAPE FROM LYNCHING MOB

Man Accused of Disloyalty Taken From Jail and Swung From Post

HUNG 15 SECONDS BEFORE CAPTORS CUT HIM DOWN

Placed In Federal Jail at Muskegon For Safe
Keeping

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Collinsville, Okla., April 20.—Henry Rheimer, who narrowly escaped death last night at the hands of 50 men bent upon hanging him for alleged disloyalty, today was taken to Tulsa, where federal officers announced he later would be placed in the federal jail at Muskogee for safe keeping.

Rheimer early today, it was said, practically had recovered from the effects of his experience last night when the men swung him into the air until he was in a semi-conscious state and released him only at the request of Charles Miller, assistant chief of police, who pleaded that he be given a hearing. Rheimer had been taken from Miller and two patrolmen at the jail during the evening by members of the party who dragged the prisoner to the home guard armory, tied an electric light cord about his neck and swung it over a basketball post. He was then placed upon a chair and after he had complied with a command that he kiss every star on an American flag, the chair was removed and his body left swinging in the air. He was allowed to hang 15 seconds or more before his captors relented and cut him down.

Rheimer was arrested after it had been reported that an American flag that a defense council committee ordered him to fly at his home during the period of the war, had disappeared. He also is accused of having said:

"I hate the United States flag."
He is 50 years old and claims to be of Prussian nativity.

AMERICAN SHIP SENT TO BOTTOM BY GERMAN SUB

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

New York, April 20.—The American steamship Florence H. formerly a Great Lakes vessel, has been sunk with loss of life near a foreign port, according to information received in shipping circles today.

The Florence H. formerly the Souk Abras, was one of the vessels brought from the Great Lakes to the Atlantic by the shipping board for transportation of war supplies. She was a vessel of about 3000 tons.

Details of the destruction of the vessel were not received and no information was available at headquarters of the shipping board.

SPAIN TO MAKE DISCOVERY DAY NATIONAL HOLIDAY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Madrid, April 20.—The Spanish government has decided to make October 12 the date of the discovery of America by Columbus in 1492 a national holiday hereafter. This action is taken at the request of the Spanish-American republics.

ENGLISH CASUALTY LIST PAST WEEK

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, April 20.—British casualties reported during the week ending today totaled 12,368, divided as follows:
Killed or Died of Wounds—Officers, 575; men, 1639.
Wounded or Missing—Officers, 2173; men, 7381.

The casualties reported for this week are approximately half as large again as those reported in the preceding week. Although heavy fighting has now been in progress a month, however, the lists have not begun to approach in size those of last year in the months of active operations when the British were on the offensive.

There is no means of determining how far the casualties now being reported represent losses in the fighting since the German offensive was started. In several weeks preceding last week, however, when 8290 names were listed, the totals had been running no higher than between 3000 and 4000.

WINS A FEDERAL WIRELESS LICENSE

Miss Louise Phillips Freeman.

The distinction of being the first girl in the middle west to be granted a first-grade wireless license is the proud honor of Miss Louise Phillips Freeman of Cincinnati. Miss Freeman studied wireless operating at Hunter College, N. Y., where she passed with the high mark of 91 1/2 per cent and she hopes soon to have an assignment to active service.

HUNS BIG GUN FIRES BUT THREE SHOTS GO WIDE

Paris, April 20.—Yesterday's long range bombardment which consisted of three shots at wide intervals resulted in no casualties and did very little damage. One shell went through the roof of a house, penetrated a workshop on the sixth floor and passed through the back wall, crossed the courtyard and into a building in the rear, finally bursting on the stair case. A number of people were employed there but all had left the building a few minutes before the shell fell.

BLIND GIRL SAVES LIVES OF CHUMS AT BABIES' HOME

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

New York, April 20.—Rosa Cohen, nine-years-old and blind, saved the lives of 16 other blind children at the Blind Babies' Sunshine Home in the Bath Beach section of Brooklyn early today.

Awakened by smoke from a fire which started in the kitchen of the home, the girl groped her way through the girl's and boy's rooms on the second floor, aroused each sleeping child and quietly marshalled them into the corridor, later leading them into the courtyard in the rear of the house.

Officials of the home were not awakened until the children were passing out of the blazing building. Two floors of the home were burned out.

BLAME FOR THE EXPLOSION PLACED ON FRENCH SHIP

Halifax, N. S., April 20.—Blame for the collision between the Norwegian steamer Tino and the French munitions ship Mont Blanc, which resulted in the loss of 1,800 lives here on December 6, was placed on the Mont Blanc by Justice Drysdale in the decision filed in the admiralty court in the libel and counter suits brought by the owners of the two vessels.

The question of damages was referred to a board consisting of the registrar of shipping and two merchants.

LIBERTY LOAN REACHES TOTAL $1,238,098,950

Treasury Department
Hopes to Get 20,000,- 000 Subscribers

WOULD DOUBLE GERMANY'S RECORD FOR DISTRIBUTION

Many Counties and Communities Are Awarded
Honor Flag

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, April 20.—Subscriptions to the Liberty loan have reached $1,238,098,950, the treasury announced today.

While American arms are meeting German forces on the battlefield in France American Liberty loans must match and overtop Germany's popular war credits, said a review issued today by national loan headquarters with the loan campaign half finished.

As compared with the United States two war loans—the first for $2,000,000,000, with 4,500,000 subscribers, or a total of $5,808,000,000 for the two—the German people have subscribed the equivalent of $17,343,000,000 in seven loans, the greatest number of subscribers in any one of which was 6,703,000. This was in the sixth loan, floated after more than two years of war, and about one in every ten of Germany's population bought bonds. In the United States, about one in 11 subscribed to the second Liberty loan.

For the third loan, now being offered, the treasury hopes to get 20,000,000 subscribers, and double Germany's best record for wide distribution of these government war securities.

ONE-HALF-MARK REACHED IN FOURTH FEDERAL DISTRICT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, April 20.—Indications were that the one-half mark of the quota of $300,000,000 for the fourth federal district will have been passed at the close of the second week of the third Liberty loan campaign today, $124,237,300 having been subscribed up to noon yesterday according to official reports last night. Of this total, Ohio leads the other states in the district with subscriptions of $86,796,950. Pennsylvania is second with $29,730,750; Kentucky third with $4,930,400, and West Virginia the last with $2,729,700.

Interest here centered in the announcement that Newton D. Baker, secretary of war, and former President William H. Taft, will come to Cleveland, April 26-27, respectively, in support of the loan.

Unofficial reports show that Mahoning county has oversubscribed its quota. Subscriptions in Wood (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3.)

FRENCH TROOPS SUCCESSFUL IN THEIR ATTACKS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Paris, April 20.—German troops last night launched a raiding operation against the French lines in the region of Hangard-en-Santerre, south-east of Amiens. The effort was a failure. The French took prisoners in this local action.

The artillery has been active along the southern battle-line between Lassigny and Noyon. The statement follows:

"The Germans attempted a raid last night in the region of Hangard-en-Santerre. Prisoners, including an officer, remained in our hands."
"On both sides the artillery fighting continued to be very active between Lassigny and Noyon."
"During the night French detachments carried out a number of raids at various points along the front, especially northwest and east of the Rheims in the Champagne, in the sector of Juvincourt and near the heights of the Meuse. The French took a number of prisoners. The Germans made several of these attempts west of Butte-du-Mesnil and in the Woivre. All were repulsed. "Everywhere else the night was calm."

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, April 20.—A revised enemy trading list containing more than five thousand names and for the first time including enemy firms in the neutral countries of Europe, was issued today by the war trade board. NEWARK EXCEEDS QUOTA IN THIRD LIBERTY LOAN BY $66,550, WHILE COUNTY HAS ALSO GONE OVER TOP, BOTH WINNING HONOR FLAGS

Newark and Licking county have gone over the top.

That was the cheering information imparted at the meeting of the Liberty loan workers last evening at the Masonic Temple, after division leaders had made their report.

Newark—$473,550.
Total—$1,028,100, with a number of the county districts to hear from. When Chairman E. C. Wright announced that Newark had won an honor-flag it was greeted with a great demonstration.

The bond salesmen, their team captains and division leaders, met last evening to make their final report. The business of the evening was preceded by a splendid fish supper, which was highly relished by the 200 workers present.

After a few introductory remarks by Chairman Wright, after completion of the supper, he called for reports of the division leaders, which were given as follows:

Div.	No. Sales.	Amount
1	105	$ 45,000
2	172	25,550
3	219	24,100
4	280	63,600
5	165	37,550
6	109	20,500
7	145	16,900
8	168	34,750
Total	1362	$267,950

Total amount of bonds subscribed for at the various financial institutions of the city, $286,600—making a grand total of $554,550.

The announcement of the totals was greeted with cheers when it was seen that the city had exceeded its quota of $488,000, by $66,550. The 200 workers present realized that hard work of the past four days had placed the city in the honor-flag list.

Manager T. J. Appleyard, of the Chamber of Commerce, in a splendid talk to the men presented the honor-flag awarded all communities of the country which exceed their quota, and Chairman Walter C. Metz, of the Liberty loan committee, thanked the men for the splendid work which they accomplished, and then presented an American flag to each of the township committees.

Rev. L. P. Franklin, in a few brief remarks, paid a glowing tribute to the men of the teams, and also to the loyal workers over the county. He said that they could be relied upon at all times to do their "bit" and put almost anything across.

C. Harrington Davis next delivered a splendid address, telling of the (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4.)

GERMAN THRUSTS FAIL AS VALIANT BRITISH FORCES EJECT ENEMY FROM ADVANCED POSITIONS IN THE REGION OF GIV- ENCHY AND FESTUBERT

MACHINE GUNS, TRENCH MORTAR AND PRISONERS WERE CAPTURED SOUTH OF THE SCARPE BY ALLIES

British Line Grows Stronger As It Repulses Attack After Attack With Enormous Loss to the Hun Hordes On Battle Front and Belief is Justified That Enemy Forces Can Be Held—Germans, Preparing For Next Assault Are Menaced By Allied Reserve Army and a Big Counter Offensive—British and French Standing Firm With Lines Unbroken

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, April 20.—Nine machine guns, a trench mortar and prisoners were taken by the British in a local operation south of the Scarpe river, the war office announced. A German counter attack was repulsed.

On the Flanders battlefield the British ejected the Germans from advanced positions gained by them in Thursday's attack in the region of Givenchy and Festubert.

The British gained all their objectives in their counter-attack in Flanders, advancing their defenses at Givenchy and Festubert and re-establishing their positions.

In sharp fighting southeast of Robecq the British drove back German attacking parties.

The statement follows:
"As a result of a successful minor enterprise carried out by us yesterday south of the Scarpe river (in the region of Arras) we captured a few prisoners, nine machine guns and a trench mortar. Early in the night the enemy launched a counter-attack in this locality and was repulsed."

"During the night a successful counter-attack by the first division threw out the enemy from points in our advanced defenses around Givenchy and Festubert gained by him on the 18th instant at the cost of heavy losses. All objectives were gained and the position there was re-established."

"Local attacks against our positions southeast of Robecq led to sharp fighting at the end of which the enemy was driven back."

"Beyond artillery activity on both sides at different points along our front there is nothing further to report."

ANOTHER THRUST BOILING.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
With the British Army in France.—No further big enemy attack developed during the night. Trouble still is brewing in the northern zone and south of the river Somme. There are indications in the latter region that another mighty thrust for the British supply base of Amiens is boiling. The Germans are nursing their positions in the region of La Bassee canal.

In a sharp local engagement at Riez du Vinage this morning from the direction of Paeaut wood the enemy over ran the British outposts but was driven back to the wood.

In the Arras region there was more activity yesterday and last night. The (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

INFANTRY BRIGADE AT SHERIDAN ON FIVE DAYS' HIKE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Montgomery, Ala., April 20.—General Zimmerman's 73rd infantry brigade, "somewhere in Alabama" on a five day practice hike, did very little work yesterday, but before the break of day today were en route back to Camp Sheridan.

The men have stood the hike and the maneuvers without a kick and are in better shape than when they left Sheridan. Advance and rear guards have been kept out at all times and the brigade has travelled just as it would in hostile country.

While the 73rd infantry brigade is on a five day hike every other outfit in Sheridan is putting in the limit of time on the drill fields, the bayonet runs, grenade courses and rifle range.

PRISONER AFTER ESCAPING SERVES IN CANADIAN ARMY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Laurens, Mich., April 20.—Edward Putnam, alias William Brennan, who escaped from Jackson prison while serving a sentence for larceny and enlisted in 1915 in the Canadian army was granted an absolute pardon today. Putnam served at Vimy ridge and was so badly wounded that he is helpless. On being discharged he came back to Michigan and was recognized and returned to London, Ontario, where he will be cared for at the expense of the Canadian government.

WILLARD-FULTON FIGHT MAY GO TO ROCKFORD, ILLS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

St. Paul, Minn., April 20.—The probability that the championship fight between Jess Willard and Fred Fulton would be held in the Twin Cities on July 4, dwindled to a possibility today. More obstacles were met by the promoter, Colonel J. C. Miller.

Although Miller announced that he would mark time until Tuesday when the Minnesota safety commission would formally consider the advisability of permitting the contest, it became known that Miller is again considering offers from other cities.

Numerous protests filed at the capitol, coupled with the announcement that the safety commission would be guided by public opinion was one cause for uncertainty.

Colonel Miller has indicated that he is interested in the move to have the fight staged at Camp Grant, Rockford, Ills. He also said that persons at Ogden, Utah, have made him an offer.

CONGRATULATES MEN ON GALLANT DEFENSE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, April 20.—Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig, the British commander-in-chief, has sent his congratulations to General Holland and all the ranks of the first corps on "the gallant and successful way in which all the enemy's attacks were repulsed yesterday."

This message apparently refers to Thursday's fight in which the British on the southern side of the Lys battlefield held firm against desperate all-day attacks by the Germans on the Givenchy-St. Venant line.

GRANVILLE

(Special to the Advocate)
Granville, Ohio, April 20.—The local draft board has received instructions to entrain 27 men for Camp Sherman on Saturday, April 20. Notices have been mailed for the boys to report to the board at 4:30 p. m. April 26. All registrants completely and actively engaged in agriculture are omitted from this call. A complete list of this and of call 169 with a quota of seven men for Ft. Thomas beginning May 10, will be published next week.

Officials of the Granville bank say that the $50,000 mark set for the liberty loan sales during this week, has been easily reached.

The asphalt surfacing of three cross town streets, Plum, Mulberry and Pearl has been completed in record time and the village may congratulate herself on a vastly improved condition, with these improved conditions however, is noticed a growing habit on the part of motorists of exceeding the speed limit, which should be checked.

Mrs. J. D. Thompson is spending the week end at Chillicothe where she is visiting her son Arthur Wright Jones in Camp Sherman.

Shepardson glee club spring concert in Recital hall tonight at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. T. A. Lewis, Mrs. E. D. Fish, Mrs. Frederick Detweiler and Mrs. Burton Case entertained the ladies of the Baptist church and congregation with a tea and musical, at the home of Mrs. Case, the first social affair of the year where refreshments were served. The change was warmly welcomed by the large number present, many of whom expressed the opinion that there should be no objection to serving tea often with some form of Hooverized accessories, such as were used yesterday. The large room was brightened with masses of spring flowers, yellow tulips, daffodils, snapdragons, pansies and ferns, and at the round table attractively spread and centered with a basket of yellow tulips, Mrs. Detweiler and Mrs. Case poured the tea which was passed by Misses Imogene Hamblen, Reba Jure, Ruby Barnes, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Fish. At the business session preceding the program the president, Mrs. Clark W. Chamberlain welcomed the new officers and dispatched necessary business. The music was charmingly significant of the spring which approaches with reluctant feet, "Maytime" was sung as soprano solo by Miss Carrie Howland, "April," by Miss Means of Denison conservatory, "Ecstasy," and "The Nightingale Has a Lyre of Gold" by Miss Ruby Barnes, also of the conservatory, and Strauss' Spring Song, was sung in closing by a dozen boys and girls of the college with the addition of Mrs. Eschman, Miss Howland and Miss Hamblen. Mrs. Darrow was accompanist.

Mrs. Fred McCollum has received news of the illness of her brother Kenneth Jones, at camp in Columbus, who is in the hospital with pneumonia. Latest reports are that he is improving.

That the Brushy Fork Red Cross auxiliary is doing good work for the organization is shown by the report sent in from March 1 to April 10. Hospital shirts 70, abdominal bandages 120, arm slings 56, T. bandages 16, property bags 15, comfort pillows 10, one comfort piece by the pupils of Loudon street school, two comforts made by members of the auxiliary, one crab comfort by Mrs. Harry Forsythe, four knitted sweaters, six pairs wristlets, one pair of socks. The chairman, Mrs. J. S. Graham, writes that she is able to make a better report this month because the North street club joined forces in the work, which was greatly appreciated by the Brushy Fork contingent. All who can find time to help are gladly welcomed. This auxiliary will give a pack sale and social at the Devinner school house, Wednesday evening, April 24. Lunch will be served for fifteen cents; proceeds to go to the Red Cross auxiliary. Come and help in the good cause, signed, Mrs. J. S. Graham, chairman.

Townpeople as well as students are interested in the council of debate and oratory of the university which offers two debates this year both coming within the space of a week. On Friday evening occurred the triangular debate between Cincinnati, Miami and Denison. At Recital hall last night E. B. Wilson, G. E. Miller and T. F. Adams discussed the affirmative against Cincinnati's negative of the question: Resolved, that the United States should take immediate steps to acquire the coal mines as a permanent policy. Denison's negative team, composed of H. C. Phillips, C. J. Greese and D. E. Albaugh met Miami university at Oxford. The home team won unanimously. Prof. Spencer accompanied the boys to Oxford.

The pulpit of the Presbyterian church will be occupied on Sunday morning by Rev. F. J. Spencer, who will also lead the Men's Bible Class at 11:15. Union services in the Methodist church at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Frohock of Columbus will conduct services at St. Luke's church morning prayer at 10:30.

WHY BUILDING COSTS HIGH.

A man who handles construction work for a large industrial plant got to talking the other day on the high cost of improving houses. He took the view that carpenter work, plumbing, painting, papering, etc., need not cost as much as they do, if the contractors for these jobs would work more systematically.

His idea was that the average contractor on these small jobs does not intend to tolerate loafing. But he has no system for ascertaining if his men are turning out the amount of work they should. Under present labor conditions, he has to employ too much unskilled help. Some of his men, as in all callings, are indolent. The small contractor may have capital enough so he can order materials in advance. The result is that the men will work along a little, and then get out of something they need. They are called off, and put to work on some other job.

From these causes it is claimed that the average small job of repairs or house improvement drags along more than it should. The man quoted said that every contractor should have a regular schedule of time for all his men. The time a job should take should be carefully estimated by a competent foreman, and the workmen should be expected to finish at that time or give a good excuse. He said that he made just such schedules for all his gangs. As a consequence he could bid below other contractors three-quarters of the time. He paid good wages, employed union help, never had any trouble with the union people, so he could not be charged with overdriving his men. How far his remarks apply to conditions in Newark one would not dare to say. But there is a feeling among our householders that many jobs of improvement take too long and cost too much.

SCHOOLING FOR ALIENS.

The disproportion existing between our educational facilities for children and those for aliens, tends more and more to impress thoughtful people.

The principle of compulsory school education for children is practically universal in this country. The United States spent last year in its common schools for the education of its children, the vast sum of $555,077,146. In addition, the colleges and technical schools received $107,530,226.

Out of these great sums but an insignificant fraction was spent for the education of aliens over school age. Most of that education is conducted in night schools. There are probably no statistics showing just what was spent for that purpose. Judging by the very limited extent to which such schools are conducted, not more than a very few millions could have been expended for instructions of aliens. And a large part of these schools and classes are provided by voluntary effort, not by taxation.

Yet there is in our country a vast mass of aliens who need education just as much as our children. We give it to all the children, because we believe that if they grow up ignorant, they cannot perform intelligently the duties of citizens in a democracy. Yet great masses of aliens are permitted to take part in the duties of the community, without the slightest attempt to overcome their ignorance or give them any training for citizenship.

If the native-born needs to know how to read his ballot before voting, why not the alien who came here after he had passed school age? Why does not the theory of compulsory education equally require compulsory education to some extent for the non-English speaking alien, whether he has passed beyond the present school age or not?

The people who complain about the high cost of lumber and other building materials, are sometimes the same ones who throw away matches and leave campfires that burn up timber lands.

The people who will find a lot of fault at the lack of shade on the streets next summer, are the same ones who never would take the trouble to plant a single tree themselves.

There is no reason for discouraging baseball in war-time. The fellow who can throw a ball from centerfield to home-plate can land a grenade in the Hun trenches next year.

According to the pacifists, if the Huns come in and put their bloody heels on your wife and daughters, the thing to do is to twirl your thumbs and quote poetry.

Some people's theory of how to win this war is to be out and weep over the failures of our allies. Other people try to take hold and do something to help.

Objection is made to the practice of tarring and feathering pro-Germans, as the tar is needed for sidewalks, and some people still enjoy feather beds.

The airplane manufacturers are respectfully reminded that quantity production five years after the war is ended, will do us very little good.

Track athletics should be encouraged. The marathon runner will be a mighty good fellow to pursue the boches to Berlin.

If you look pleasant at the Liberty loan solicitor, it will encourage him to work for a good subscription from your neighbor.

THE CHAMBERLAIN BILL.

(Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.)
With execution of Bolo Pasha before them as an example, the American people will give hearty approval to the principle of the Chamberlain bill which provides that enemy propagandists and spies shall be dealt with by the military authorities. Our civil courts have had their trial with this class of offenders without accomplishing anything effectual in promotion of the public safety. It is time we did the sensible thing in protection. This is not to say there is less of justice to be had at the hands of a court-martial; every accused person would be secure in all the rights which it should be possible to invoke. But none could take advantage of those technicalities with which civil tribunals habitually hedge themselves about and which result in so many miscarriages of justice. Our enemies do not fear the civil courts. As a sequel they do not respect our laws or the administrators thereof. A wholesome fear of the consequences of their misdeeds must be put into their hearts. That can be done by arraigning them for trial before the military authorities. The Chamberlain bill, enacted into law, will not stop German propaganda nor the activities of spies, but it will lessen those evils. We shall be much safer. Our war-work will suffer less from interference by enemy agents. We revert to the case of Bolo Pasha, what would have been its course had that French traitor been answerable to the civil courts? It takes no lively imagination to picture the emotional spectacle that would have been presented to the view of a disgusted world. The trial would have dragged on for weeks and months; the prisoner would have been made to appear more like a hero than the despicable scamp he was. Conceivably he would have been acquitted and turned loose to resume his plot against the noble country he already had betrayed. At worst he would have been imprisoned and probably under conditions that would have been no hardship. How different with a military court sitting! The brief dispatch reporting the sunrise tragedy at Vincennes has a significance for traitors and spies that cannot be misunderstood. There is no glory in such an end as Bolo met. It would be a blessing if we could honorably avoid any such scenes in this country; they can be minimized without sacrifice of safety if we adopt the Chamberlain bill plan.

LARGER ARMY NEEDED.
(Ohio State Journal.)
There was a disposition to laugh at Taft when he said we will need 7,000,000 men fighting in France. That may be more men than are needed but it is not far astray. We will need at least half that many and we will need them soon. We should have them now. We need every cantonment in France. We have been losing ground by taking so much time. It may not be helped. There may be insuperable obstacles in the way that we do not see, but we are not critics; we are only expressing public sentiment and a widespread anxiety. When Taft says we need an army of 7,000,000 men over there, he is not condemning the government for not having them. He is only saying we need that many; so say we all, and the sooner we send that many men over there the more lives will be saved and the sooner the war will end.

As Others See Us.

Familiarity is apt to so dull our perceptions that fine and even magnificent things grow to appear commonplace. An illuminating slant of a fresh vision is then needed to bring us back to a proper discernment of the extraordinary thing which we have been so negligently contemplating. That is why we think the following extract should have an audience only limited by the boundaries of the United States. It is taken from an article in the New Republic for April 13, on "What Democracy Means," in the series of "A League of Free Nations," by Mr. H. G. Wells, English author:—

"The one man who has risen to the greatness of this great occasion, the man who is, in default of any rival, rapidly becoming the leader of the world toward peace, is neither a delegate politician nor the choice of a monarch and his councilors. He is the one authoritative figure in these transactions whose mind has not been subdued either by the party machine or by court intrigue, who has continued his education beyond those early twenties when the mind of the 'budding politician' ceases to expand, who has thought, and thought things out, who is an educated man among dexterous undereducated specialists. 'The President of the United States is more in the nature of a selected man than any other conspicuous figure at the present time. And be it remembered that Mr. Wilson is not the first great president the United States have had, he is one of a series of figures who tower over their European contemporaries. The United States have had many ad-

BOLO PASHA.

(Columbus Dispatch.)

In the execution of Bolo Pasha, France has demonstrated her seriousness in this war, if anything further were necessary. She has also set an example for the authorities in this country.

Bolo Pasha was accused of being an enemy of France. The charge involved giving aid and comfort to the enemy in that he was accused of plotting with Germany to bring about an unjust peace, but the general charge of being an enemy of France was the cause of his execution. And it is in that charge that we ought to read a valuable lesson.

We ought to dispose of enemies of the United States just as France disposed of Bolo Pasha. In order to convict a man of being an enemy of the United States it ought not to be necessary to show that he dumped the country into the ocean. All that ought to be necessary to convict a man of such a charge would be to show that he interfered in any measure with the progress of the war—that he said or did something that tended to impede recruiting or to make the soldiers dissatisfied and therefore inefficient. Any man who has made an unreasonable profit off the government since the war began ought to be convicted and executed. No matter what his social or political or financial standing, if it can be shown that any man in this country has been profiteering, he ought to be tried as an enemy of the United States, and executed as was Bolo Pasha. The merchant who charges a soldier more for a pair of leggings than they are worth, ought to be shot. The groceryman who takes advantage of his customers and profits unduly ought to be stood against the wall. The manufacturer who is making money out of munitions, beyond a fair profit, has no right to live in this country, and ought to be tried as an enemy of the United States, and, if convicted, put to death.

America at Prayer.

Four years ago we prayed for world peace. In the interval we have learned that such a peace is impossible unless we as a nation compel it by force of arms. Nation-wide prayer for the success of our arms would be a prayer for the establishment of a permanent and enduring peace, by the only means through which such a result is possible. It would be a prayer for peace through victory. A prayer for strength to carry through a righteous purpose is always fitting and never more so than when thousands of the flower of our youth are vantageous circumstances to thank for their present ascendancy in the world's affairs; isolation from millitary pressure for a century and a quarter, a vast virgin continent, plenty of land, freedom from centralization, freedom from titles and social vulgarities, common schools, a real democratic spirit in their people, and a great enthusiasm for universities, but no single advantage has been so great as this happy accident which has given it a specially selected man as its voice and figurehead in the world's affairs. It is to the United States of America we must look now if the world is to be made 'safe for democracy.' It is to the methods of selection as distinguished from delegation, that we must look if democracy is to be saved from itself."

Did You Know

That every liquid has a boiling point of its own? The boiling point of water is ordinarily 212 degrees; of sulphuric ether, 96 degrees; alcohol, 176 degrees; oil of turpentine, 316 degrees; sulphuric acid, 620 degrees; and mercury, 662 degrees. Water, with common salt in it requires greater heat to make it boil than pure water, and in a glass vessel the boiling point of water is a degree or two higher than in one of metal. In elevated positions the boiling point is lower than at the level of the sea. An elevation of 510 feet above the sea level makes a diminution of a degree. On a mountain in the Himalayas at a height of 18,000 feet water boils at 180 degrees. Boiling water is thus not always equally hot, and in elevated places many substances cannot be cooked by boiling.

Boer Smuts "Boorishness."

Vienna was shocked, the news dispatch says, at the "boorish manners" of General Smuts when he went to Switzerland to learn what the former Austrian ambassador to London had to say about peace with Austria. The Austrian diplomat wanted to muddle things up with falsehood and subterfuge, but the old South African general bid him an abrupt farewell when he found that the truth was not in him. The right way to deal with a shrewd person is to let him know that you want none of his guile, and that is the way that General Smuts chose.—Hartford Courant.

Our Wheat Abstaining Effective.

The statistics for food shipments in March show by what a wide margin we are clearing the danger point. The export of 1,100,000 tons exceeds by 300,000 tons the minimum which the latter set as the monthly requirement of the allied peoples. In the first week of February we sent abroad about 85,000 tons of cereals, and 100,000 tons of all foods. Before the end of the month the total sent abroad was 750,000 tons, or only a little below the amount required by the allies as men within the present military age limits. Though they cannot do as well as young men on the battlefield, they can yet do well in keeping these youngsters fed and armed.

The country will raise no protest against the proposal in Mr. Wilson's hands. When it went into the war a year ago it did so in earnest, without condition, exception or crossing of fingers. The men past 31 will demonstrate that earnestness by stepping forward and saluting when the president calls them.

"THE ROCKY ROAD TO DUNKIRK"

WE STAND READY, MR. WILSON.

(Toledo Blade.)

To obtain 5,000,000 men for essential war industries a proposal has been placed before the president which calls for raising the draft age to 45 or 50.

It has been recognized from the beginning of the war that industry would have to be mobilized no less than the manhood capable of bearing arms. But putting industry upon a war basis has been more difficult than finding men for the armies. It continues to be the most difficult question in getting the soldiers in France where they ought to be.

Instead of the 150,000 or 200,000 workers now in the shipyards, it is declared that there should be a million men there. Instead of having to depend upon irregular and casual labor at the wharves, the men engaged in keeping supplies pouring across the Atlantic to Pershing ought to have men who are on the spot any hour that they are needed. Instead of having to compete with one another for workers, the factories on war orders ought to have corps of labor as certain to be on the job as enlisted soldiers are.

All this is a matter of mobilizing for the war. It is as essential as creating a military machine. It is, indeed, the thing which makes the machine possible. Every moment that we let industry stumble along with a labor shortage, that we let factories and shipping and agriculture fritter away energy looking for workers and trying to keep workers, we must put down on our books as the waste of precious time. By so much do we delay the coming of peace.

To win this war, the comfort of no citizen can be taken into consideration. Men past the age of 21, we just as much responsibility to the country as men within the present military age limits. Though they cannot do as well as young men on the battlefield, they can yet do well in keeping these youngsters fed and armed.

The country will raise no protest against the proposal in Mr. Wilson's hands. When it went into the war a year ago it did so in earnest, without condition, exception or crossing of fingers. The men past 31 will demonstrate that earnestness by stepping forward and saluting when the president calls them.

TEST OF COURAGE.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

The courage of the allied democracies is put to the extreme test by events in Flanders. With a seemingly inexhaustible supply of fresh troops and with no conscience whatever about sacrificing them, Hindenburg presses on. Reeling by inches and in perfect order, the British continue to inflict terrible penalties upon the madly-charging foe.

The allies' line is as yet unbroken. Assuredly, the allies' nerve is no less unbroken! Soldiers of liberty are fighting as free men have always fought. With their "back to the wall," they are holding in check the hordes of barbarism; diving by thousands in defense of civilization and their homes, they go down with banners unstained.

What the immediate result of the battle may be no one is wise enough to tell. Perhaps conjecture is profitless. The call to democracy everywhere to take new courage, to summon new reserves of determination, in order to meet the Prussian onslaught is perfectly manifest. This may, of course, be Germany's final supreme effort, failing in which she will be ready to listen to reason. For, after that monumental drive in Flanders is merely the normal measure of Prussian strength; that this is the force for evil which the world's democracies must prepare to crush at whatever expense. If anyone, in America or elsewhere, anticipated an easy triumph here is his answer—an answer written in the blood of innumerable heroic men.

This is Prussianism. This is the beast which the United States has pledged its faith and its resources to help exterminate. The menace of it is clearer today than ever before; the duty of its suppression never before so plain.

Every American today regrets that his country has not five times as many men in France as it has there in fact. Oh, for 5,000,000 trained, capable Americans to send to the relief of our all-but-exhausted allies at Ypres! Oh, for this chance to show appreciation for the service rendered to the United States by those who held the Huns at bay while we remained at ease!

One manifest duty rests upon every toe of Prussianism at this hour when Prussianism seems most powerful. Be of good cheer. Hurry every resource into the fray. The battle is not yet ended—much less, the war.

HOPE AND POVERTY.

(Ohio State Journal.)

No boy should regret his poverty. If he looks at it rightly, it is capital in trade. One builds a purpose out of it. We have seen boys grapple their poverty and make themselves rich and the leaders of men out of it. Everything depends upon the use a person puts a thing to and there is more chance for a boy to put poverty to use than there is wealth. The ability to loaf is not near as fine for a boy as the necessity to work. Poverty is the mother of self-reliance, and self-reliance is the secret of success. We congratulate the boy who has to make his own way in the world. He may have to feel some hard knocks, but they assist. A poor boy should find something to do as soon as possible. It may be a humble position, but any place will show the stuff in him and at the same time provide an opportunity to work. It is the work that counts. A lazy boy may stumble on some hidden treasure, but there is very little of that around, and of little worth when found. Work is the thing; there is naught but failure without.

TAKE YOUR MEDICINES

Regularly This Spring—Hood's Sarsaparilla Before Meals—Peptonin After.

This combination is having wonderful success everywhere. It is relieving rheumatism, expelling humors, restoring lost appetite, giving the glow of health to the cheeks, making faces bright and complexions clear, and literally giving worn-out, brain-fagged people new ambition and the strength of iron.

For it combines that most useful of all metals—iron—in a course of medicine that is peculiarly effective. Hood's Sarsaparilla is made from an unsurpassed formula of blood-purifying and stomach-toning remedies, and Peptonin from pepsin, iron, nux and other blood and stomach tonics that physicians prescribe.

In cases where a cathartic is needed, Hood's Sarsaparilla and Peptonin are very effectively supplemented by Hood's Pills, relieving biliousness, constipation, and all liver ills.

THAT BIG GUN AGAIN.

(Philadelphia Record.)

It is a matter of wonder by what instinct or fortuitous circumstances the shells of that big gun select as their objects of destruction the more defenseless victims. Now one has struck a founding hospital.

We are rapidly being forced to the conclusion that everything German, animate or inanimate, intelligent or unreasoning, is permeated with the same spirit of frightfulness. That such effects had been wrought would act as a deterrent with any people who were not obsessed; would cause a revulsion. But what may we not expect from a people which can make a holiday in honor of the sinking of the Lusitania?

"GOD BLESS AMERICA"

WAS GREETING OF THE ARMENIAN REFUGEES

(Associated Press Telegram)

Jerusalem, Thursday, April 11.—Americans deported from Central Turkey to Syria and others who are fleeing from Turkish oppression continue to arrive in Palestine in great numbers, to take refuge in the regions occupied by the British army. In the week after Easter 5,500 refugees reached Jerusalem. A hospital and an orphanage have been opened by the American committee for Armenian and Syrian relief and are already taxed to capacity.

A celebration such as the Holy Land has never witnessed before was held on Easter. The various Christian sects gave pledges to the British governor general to bury their ancient strifes and observe Easter together at the Holy places in Bethlehem and Jerusalem. They met in perfect concord. Four thousand Jews held an open air meeting on the Mount of Olives today and listened to addresses by representatives of the British Zionist commission. Stephen Trowbridge, of the American committee has returned to Jerusalem from Jerico, where he spent Easter.

"I found many old friends among the Armenians deported from central Turkey," he said today. "They reached Jerico in a state of exhaustion, having come in by way of Es Salt. Their gratitude on receiving their first ration was pathetic. 'God bless America,' they said. 'Your kindness is the first we have experienced in three years.' Some of them asked: 'Where can we enlist?'"

SHORT HORN BREEDERS ARE MEETING TODAY.

The first meeting of the newly organized Licking County Short Horn Breeders' Association was held in County Agent L. L. Nowls' office at the chamber of commerce rooms this afternoon at one o'clock. The association was organized on April 6 at the opera house in Granville when a group of representative short horn breeders gathered to see a series of moving pictures of the prize winning short horn stock at the International stock show at Chicago. There were about 300 there and as a result the determination to breed better cattle resulted in the organization of the association.

McBrien, Rural School Specialist in the United States Bureau of Education, Washington; Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, president of the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission and pioneer for the Elimination of Illiteracy; Mrs. Edward Franklin White, G. F. W. C. chairman of Potomac; Mrs. Rosa B. Knox, director of Primary Kindergarten Department of the Mississippi Central Institute; Mrs. C. Shepherd, of Alhambra, Cal.; Vice President of the California State Board of Education and founder of the School Mothers' Association of America; Mrs. Edward Biddle, vice Southwest District Conference.

Southwest District of Ohio Federation of Women's clubs met the nineteenth at Wyoming, this being the spring conference. There was a large reception Friday night in the Wyoming clubhouse. The sessions were attended by 300 representatives of the different parts of the district Saturday, the sessions being devoted to reports from different clubs especially on their Red Cross and other war relief work. Major James Everson, from Camp Sherman, gave a very interesting address.

Reduced Railroad Fares.
Delegates to the women's war-work convention, the fourteenth biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs to occur in Hot Springs, Ark., April 28 to May 9, and other travelers to Hot Springs, will doubtless be the only travelers in the United States on reduced fares. Fortunately for them, Hot Springs happens to be the property of the United States, the first government reservation and national health resort and the one place in the country to which reduced tourist round-trip rates are on sale every day in the year.

Home for Soldiers Abroad.
The women of the federated clubs of America want to make an American "Blighty" in France for their sons and the sons of other American women. A "War Victory Commission" to provide recreation facilities for the American boys on leave in France has just been created by the General Federation of Women's clubs. Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars will be the sum asked from the federation to help the Fosdick Commission on Training Camp Activities give the boys back of the lines abroad an American place for rest and good times during periods of leave. Mrs. R. H. Ashbaugh of Detroit, director of the Michigan branch of the federation, is chairman of the "War Victory Commission." The idea of establishing this form of war activity in the general federation came from Texas club women, who raised $50,000 for that purpose.

Urging National Prohibition.
At a recent meeting of the Youngtown Federation of Women's clubs, a resolution was passed urging national prohibition during the war, as a conservation measure. We feel that the club women of Ohio and the country should get behind this movement in a body and thus bring about national prohibition, which would not only conserve grain, coal, railroad facilities, etc., but eliminate many evils as well.

Milady's Boudoir

Red Arms Ruin Beauty.
No woman should feel regret that her arms are slender. Slender arms are always suggestive of youth, and especially the forearms. Only after the figure begins to take on flesh as middle age approaches, do the forearms acquire a really beautiful roundness, and a well rounded wrist and forearm usually mean too heavy a contour from elbow to shoulder. If the arms are kept milky white and beautifully soft and satiny, slenderness is no detriment and is rather an advantage, for, after first youth, slender arms accompany only the figure that lack unbecoming embonpoint.

Red arms and rough elbows, however, whether slender or plump, are never lovely and the woman who wishes to make the most of her physical charms, should strive against them constantly. There are various causes for red arms. One of them is the wearing of tight clothing. Collars worn too tight, may cause redness of the arms. Sometimes, too, bad circulation is responsible for the affliction.

If the hands are constantly cold and the hands and arms are red, one may be sure that a lack of circulation is to blame, and the best cure will be proper exercise and brisk rubbings over the whole body with cold water and a flesh brush, with afterward equally brisk rubbing with a coarse towel. This will set the blood in a glow and help to distribute it properly through the whole body.

During the arms above the head at intervals, will make the hands and forearms white, particularly if the hands are shaken about while held aloft.

A slight scalp trouble may be treated easily at home, but one must use judgement in deciding upon the remedy. When the scalp is very dry and there is constant scaling which gives the hair a powdery look, this means that there is a chronic inflammation of the hair follicles, and unless this is arrested, the hair will fall out in bunches after a time.

Our Boys and Girls

The instinct of a baby is to put everything into its mouth. This is so strong that nothing should be given a child that cannot be safely handled in this way. Hence, one should choose toys that are smooth, that can be easily washed and those which the baby cannot swallow.

One should avoid toys with sharp edges or corners, those with loose parts that might become detached or broken off and swallowed, or pushed into the nose or ears, such as marbles and beads. Painted toys should be avoided, also those covered with hair or wool. It should also be remembered that toys should not be merely sources of amusement, but that they should have an educational value as well.

Don't correct your child before others. Never mind if a well meaning relative does say: "My dear, I am surprised that you do not show more force of character. Your children are suffering from lack of discipline." Pass the matter over until you and the small offender can have it out alone. If the circumstances are such that it cannot be well passed over, take him out of the room for his lesson.

The average man is content to strike while the iron is hot, but the baseball player often takes three strikes.

SECRETARY OF NAVY VISITS SHIP YARDS

QUINCY, MASS., APRIL 20.—It took no less a person than Joseph Daniels himself to pry off today the secret of secrecy which upon the declaration of war, was clamped down by the navy department upon the activities of the Bethlehem shipbuilding corporation at its Fore River plant and Squantum works. The secretary of the navy came here on a tour of inspection of these yards, escorted by Joseph W. Powell, vice president of the Bethlehem shipbuilding company. With Mr. Daniels, Governor McCall, the Mayors of Boston and Quincy and other guests, he arrived at Fore River early in the morning. General Manager W. S. Wakeman escorted the party to the shipways. Here was a launching stand over which one of the latest type of destroyers was being turned out at Fore River poked her sharp cut bow.

At the screeching of a siren several thousand workmen came pouring out of the shops. The Fore River band played the Star Spangled Banner and Mrs. Daniels graciously discharged her office as sponsor of the latest of Uncle Sam's war ships took the water to the cheering of a constantly augmenting mass of grimy ship builders.

Mr. Daniels appeared tremendously impressed, for the yard he knew when last he visited this place, had 3,500 men at work. Today it has 16,000.

PLANS FOR THE NEW DRAFT ARE BEING ARRANGED

WASHINGTON, APRIL 20.—Under the classification of men for selective draft service, Provost Marshal General Crowder has advised the senate military committee, approximately 2,000,000 will be placed in class one, from which it is expected all future calls will be taken.

These 2,000,000, according to General Crowder are exclusive of between 500,000 and 1,000,000 more annually, it is estimated, will be made subject to military duty under the bill now in congress subjecting to registration youths reaching their majority.

From the 2,000,000 men in class one, nearly 20 per cent of the total registration in the country, and the additional number secured by new legislation, General Crowder has advised senators that it will be improbable that calls will go outside of the highest class. Of youths reaching 21 years of age, under the new legislation, it is believed that at least 90 per cent will be placed in class one.

Plans for the new draft, General Crowder has advised the senate committee are somewhat unsettled by the house amendment to the senate bill changing basis of quotas from state populations to the number of men in class one, which would give credit to states for all men previously furnished, by voluntary enlistment or draft. Operation of the house amendment, according to General Crowder, would cause much inequality between states in the new draft.

Agricultural states, he has advised the committee, would have to furnish the largest new quotas and it is doubted whether this would be advisable in view of necessity for undiminished food production.

According to preliminary inquiry of the provost marshal general's office, of the house amendment, Louisiana would be required under the proposal to furnish 76 per cent of all Louisianians in class one and Alabama and Mississippi about 66 per cent while Massachusetts would be compelled to present only 10 per cent of the state and thereby proportion the number of voluntary enlistments. The states under the amendment, it was said, would be exempt entirely from the new call.

Because of the disproportions arising under the house plans, General Crowder has obtained an agreement from congressional leaders to postpone action on the bill until a careful examination of the results is available.

SITUATION GRAVE OVER CONSCRIPTION IS DUBLIN ADVICE

LONDON, APRIL 20.—A grave and menacing situation created by the determination of Nationalist Ireland, united as seldom before, to resist conscription, has aroused deep interest throughout Great Britain. Particular emphasis is laid on the decision of the Roman Catholic hierarchy to throw in its lot with the Sinn Feiners, who have openly proclaimed Germany as their ally. The bishops have not counselled violence, urging passive resistance, but this, Dublin correspondents point out, might easily be turned into active resistance by a few hot heads when the time comes to conscript the young men of the country.

The pledge which is to be administered Sunday to what one authority estimates at nine-tenths of the entire Catholic population of the country, binds them to "resist conscription by the most effective means at their disposal."

This gives wide latitude and pleases the advocates of both passive and active resistance. The delicacy of the situation is recognized by the Irish Times, hitherto in favor of conscription which advises the government and the Irish leaders to "escape from the truly miserable position" by "organizing a great voluntary recruitment campaign." This the newspaper believes would make the enforcement of conscription unnecessary.

The Daily News advises the government to drop altogether the attempt to pursue this "Irish adventure."

The Chronicle believes conscription will not be attempted until home rule is an accomplished fact and that then the Irish parliament will be left to raise men for the army in what proportion and by what means it pleases.

Business Woman Finds a Quick Remedy for Colds, LaGrippe and Tonsillitis.

Miss Bernice Krebs, 301 College St., Findlay, O., says: "During the month of January I was seized with hard chills while at work in the office of the Morning Republican and on arriving home in the evening found that I had a genuine case of LaGrippe. Nearly every bone in my body ached and I was so sick that it was unable to report at the office the following morning. I took four big doses of 20 drops each, of Hull's Superlative Compound that day. The next morning I was feeling tip-top and able to return to my duties."

Miss Krebs is only one of hundreds who have broken up colds, LaGrippe and tonsillitis with Hull's Superlative Compound.

When taken in time, Hull's Superlative Compound never fails to assist nature to do its work on these diseased organs of the body. It improves the circulation, causes the blood to reach every cell and rapid improvement takes place.

All good druggists handle this wonderful remedy. After once trying Hull's Superlative and receiving its benefits, you will always keep it in the house. For a general spring tonic and disease preventative there is nothing better than Hull's Superlative Compound.

Hull's Superlative is sold by all druggists on a positive money-back guarantee, and any man or woman who is sick or ailing—no matter what the condition or how serious—should lose no time in taking this preparation, for if it does not help you your money will be returned.

MRS. J. C. STOCKTON,
NEWARK WOMAN,
ROBBED AT DEPOT

Enroute to visit relatives in St.
Louis, Mo., Mrs. John H. Stockton, who with her husband has apartments with Mrs. Jones, 137 East Main street, this city, was robbed of her purse and all her belongings in the union station at Cincinnati last night.

Although a score of fellow travelers rushed to the aid of Mrs. Stockton the thieves succeeded in getting her purse which contained $32, her railroad ticket to St. Louis, and her baggage checks and other valuables were also taken. A number of fellow passengers got together and furnished the Newark woman with money to go on her journey and the police were put on the case.

The theft is credited to an organized gang of depot thieves who have infested the various railroad depots at Cincinnati for some years past, but so far the police have failed to apprehend them.

Mr. Stockman is employed as a boiler maker at the B. and O., and Mrs. Stockton left yesterday noon to visit her former home in St. Louis.

Washington, April 20.—An official list of the individuals and sections of the United States army ambulance service cited for bravery was received today at the office of Surgeon General Gorgas. Forty-two separate citations are noted. In two instances entire sections were commended.

Section No. 64 commanded by Lieutenant E. T. Drake, was commended on two occasions and finally was given the right to wear the "fourragere." It is the first American organization to receive this honor.
The other American section commanded by First Lieutenant Allan
H. Muhr. The citation in the official
French order was as follows:

"The section rendered most valuable service to the eighth division of infantry and showed great coolness and devotion in making certain fidavit charging Moore with their theft. Moore will have his hearing before the Mayor Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

A Daughter of the Gods

FEATURING THE INCOMPARABLE
ANNETTE KELLERMAN
The Stupendous Million Dollar Screen Masterpiece
That is Amazing the Nation

SPECIAL MUSICAL PROGRAM
Dr. Dudley A. Sargent Pronounces Annette Kellerman
the Most Perfectly Formed Woman—Her Measurements Compared With Those of Cleopatra and the Venus de Milo

Dr. Dudley A. Sargent, professor of physical education at Harvard, has pronounced Annette Kellerman, the talented aquatic star in William Fox's $1,000,000 picture beautiful, "A Daughter of the Gods," the most perfectly formed woman in his experience. "Annette Kellerman," said Dr. Sargent, "is the most perfectly formed and beautiful woman I have ever seen. The most charming thing about her is the admirable side line effect and her artistic profile. She is a model for all women."

Annette Kellerman has been compared both to Cleopatra and the Venus de Milo. A comparison of measurements shows, however, that while her figure approximates those of the famous Egyptian beauty and the Greek goddess who for centuries has been the world's standard of feminine loveliness, the proportions of Miss Kellerman are better balanced than in the case of either.

Here are Miss Kellerman's measurements compared with those of Cleopatra and the Venus:

MEASUREMENT	CLEOPATRA	ANNETTE KELLERMAN	VENUS
Height	5 ft. 5 in.	5 ft. 4 in.	5 ft. 4 in.
Neck	13.7 in.	12.6 in.	14.8 in.
Waist	23.2 in.	26.2 in.	31.2 in.
Hips	29.6 in.	37.8 in.	40.8 in.
Shoulders	40 in.	36.8 in.	41.1 in.
Upper arm	12.6 in.	12 in.	13.2 in.
Fore arm	9.5 in.	9.4 in.	9.4 in.

Patriotism That Pays

EVERY farmer wants to produce all he can this year. Many farmers cannot plant more acres, but every farmer can increase the yield from every acre he plants, by the proper use of a Low Cloverleaf manure spreader. Gains of 25 to 35 per cent are not unusual from soil topdressed with fresh stable manure spread with a

Low Cloverleaf Manure Spreader

The Low Cloverleaf is a wide spreading, easy running, light draft, narrow box spreader, made in three handy sizes—small, medium and large. The wide spreading device catches the manure as it comes from the heater, breaks it up into still finer particles, and throws it out beyond the wheel tracks in a wide even spread. This is the kind of fertilizing recommended by all the authorities.

The entire load is spread in 3 to 5 minutes. The machine runs easily and lasts a long time because the working parts and all securely fastened to a sturdy steel frame which keeps them in place and in line.

The Low Cloverleaf spreader is backed by International Harvester reputation for quality machines. It does the work as it should be done. This year of all years, you should have a good manure spreader and you will profit most by using a Low Cloverleaf. Immediate delivery. Place your order now.

UTICA OVER THE TOP.
(Special to the Advocate)
Utica, O., April 22.—Incomplete returns show that Utica has earned an "honorary flag," having sold more than three times her quota of the third Liberty loan. The workers at the Licking Window Glass factory where James R. Fitzgibbon and George H. Hamilton spoke on Wednesday, subscribed for $12,000 worth of the government bonds.

23122 Job Printing.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

One-third of the year 1935 is almost gone. One-third of Licking county's allotment of War Savings stamps for the year is $412,060. The sale of war stamps in this county up-to-date is in round numbers $398,000. So if Licking county is to go "over the top" in war savings, as she has done in the first, second and third Liberty loans, War Savings stamps must be purchased in large numbers throughout the year. To keep up with the quota the sales must average about $4000 every day.

With reports from every one of the 23 postoffices and 10 of the 17 banks in Licking county, the War Savings stamp sales for the week ending April 11, amounted to $25,128, or $1348 above the weekly quota. The sales for the previous week amounted to $28,508. The total sales to date are $397,779 in Licking county.

To date, there are 166 members of the Licking County $1000 War Savings Society, each of whom will receive an engraved certificate personally signed by Governor Cox and State Director Wolfe. Prof. S. L. Beatty, of this city, has kindly consented to letter the certificates, each of which will bear the owner's name. Only a few of the signed certificates have been received from the state headquarters, but as quickly as they are received and lettered they will be mailed to members of the $1000 War Savings Society.

Membership in the $1000 War Savings Society is obtained through the purchase of 200 War Savings stamps, the April price of which is $830. These stamps grow in value at the rate of $2 each month. They are not taxable and the government pledges their redemption upon 10 days' notice, paying both principal and interest. The 200 stamps costing $830 now, will be worth $1000 on January 1, 1935. Twenty $5 stamps, costing $83 in April, will be worth $100 on January 1, 1935. One $5 stamp, costing $4.15 now, will be worth $5 on January 1, 1935.

L. V. Lake of Johnstown, is a member of the Licking County $1000 War Savings Society, having purchased 200 War Savings stamps.

Granville reports War Savings stamp sales this week amounting to $1950.

Once more, note this fact: If all of the Licking county school children buy three times their allotment of $70,000 worth of War Savings stamps there still remains more than a million dollars' worth to be taken by the adults of this county. If Licking is to "go over the top" War Savings stamps are better than money because they are not taxable and grow more valuable every month. They cannot be lost if they are registered and Uncle Sam is pledged to pay back both principal and interest any time upon 10 days' notice. The interest, if the stamps are held till January 1, 1935, amounts to 4 per cent, compounded every 90 days, or 4.27 per cent straight interest. The money obtained from the sale of stamps goes into Uncle Sam's war-chest along with the Liberty loan.
